Women's Social and Political Union Silver Medal for Valour, obverse engraved Hunger Strike, reverse engraved Anna Smith, with one clasp engraved May 21st 1914, extremely fine; in case of issue, interior of silk-lined cover with gold-blocked inscription: PRESENTED TO ANNA SMITH BY THE WOMEN'S SOCIAL AND POLITICAL UNION IN RECOGNITION OF GALLANT ACTION WHEREBY THROUGH ENDURANCE TO THE LAST EXTREMES OF HUNGER AND HARDSHIP A GREAT PRINCIPLE OF POLITICAL JUSTICE WAS VINDICATED £2,000-3,000

The date on Anna Smith's Women's Social and Political Union (WSPU) Medal, '21st May 1914', pinpoints the occasion of the act for which she was arrested, imprisoned and went on hunger strike. Not unusually there is no specific mention of Anna in the main accounts of that day and the court appearances that followed (for example, in 'Votes for Women', 'The Suffragette', 'The Times'). In common with most other women who participated in acts of civil disobedience at this time, she remains anonymous, except for her medal. Publicity was inevitably centred on the major players, such as Mrs. Pankhurst, Sylvia Pankhurst, Annie Kenney etc. Reporting the names of participants was difficult because of the number of women involved and the fact that many Suffragettes refused to give names and address when arrested and tried. Indeed, they often gave false details.

Nonetheless, the events of 21 May 1914 itself are well documented and constitute a famous incident in Suffragette history. They followed an eventful couple of months which had seen escalating damage to churches, mansions, grandstands, golf links, paintings in art galleries and to other public monuments and installations. Much police activity followed, aimed at arresting the culprits and preventing further civil disobedience and criminal damage.

On 21 May, the WSPU organised a deputation to Buckingham Palace with the intention of presenting the King with a number of grievances, especially the lack of progress in its campaign to enfranchise women. About 200 women participated, led by a very weak Mrs. Pankhurst, who had only recently been released from prison after being on hunger strike. As the planned deputation had been well advertised in advance, the authorities were prepared and had drafted about 1,500 Constables into the neighbourhood and put a cordon put around the entrances to the Palace. At the top of Constitution Hill there was a force of Mounted and Foot Police, with Mounted Police at the top of the Mall and opposite Wellington Barracks. There was also a large crowd of spectators, many, though by no means all, ill-disposed to the Suffragettes.

As the vanguard of the Deputation approached Constitution Hill, scuffles broke out and several women were pushed to the floor and, apparently, one policeman felled by a club, which some of the women carried as protection. Soon the violence escalated and it was reported by the women and some onlookers (who became more sympathetic to the WSPU as events unfolded) that Police brutality had exceeded that experienced in Parliament Square of the infamous 'Black Friday', on 18 November 1910. Accounts said that the Police had struck the women, sometimes using batons, and had thrown them around 'like hockey balls'; others were 'ridden down'. Eventually the demonstration was broken up even before it reached Buckingham Palace and this resulted in 68 arrests (including two men). Mrs. Pankhurst was taken back to Holloway. Those arrested reported further violence at the Police Station with the 'plain clothes Police being the most brutal'.

Next day, the women appeared at Bow Street, still refusing to give their names and addresses and, according to 'The Times', behaving in a disorderly manner. Before proceedings started, someone engaged for the purpose played 'The Marseillaise' on a cornet outside the court and had to be found and removed. Inside the court there were scuffles as the women were dragged into the dock. A bag of flour and an egg were thrown and a boot was aimed directly at the Magistrate (who caught it). This and the disorder in the public gallery, led to Sir John Dickinson clearing the court before proceedings could continue. Most of the women refused to be bound over or to pay fines, hence they were sent to Holloway prison, where most went on hunger strike only to be released after a short period of time due to their weakened condition.

Following the events of 21 May, further significant acts of damage took place with the WSPU arguing that the King had acted unconstitutionally by not receiving the delegation. Such acts included the harming of pictures in the National Gallery and Royal Academy, also of a mummy case in the British Museum in London as well of other targets throughout the country. But such activities did not have long to run as, with the advent of war in August 1914, most former woman activists became focused on more patriotic acts.

We are most grateful to Diana Birch for her generous assistance in the cataloguing of this lot.

Regimental Order 1019 of 1917, 9th Battalion, Royal Warwickshire Regiment.

"His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief is pleased to place on record his appreciation of the gallant conduct of the undermentioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men who volunteered to assist in quelling a fire which broke out in the coal bunkers of one of His Majesty's Transports when at sea.

The ship's engineering staff were unable to overcome the fire, which had been gaining headway for some days. The gas fumes from the burning bunkers caused frequent and terrific explosions and the heat in the bunkers was tremendous. 25 per cent of the volunteers who were sent down were severely burned, gassed or injured. Notwithstanding these hazards the fire was overcome. The Commander-in-Chief considers that the gallantry displayed by both Officers and men was of the highest orders and reflects the greatest credit on themselves and their regiments."

The following information is taken from Stanistreet, Allan, Brave Railwaymen:

GEORGE RHODES was born in Dudley, Worcestershire on 15 December 1886 one of 12 children. On leaving school after working as a moulder and a builder he joined the London and North Western Railway and during this time he assisted in loading the anchor of the ill-fated Titanic at Dudley Port.

Prior to the outbreak of the Great War George Rhodes served in the local militia and when war broke out, he and four of his brothers volunteered for service in the forces. This was a record for any Dudley family and all the more remarkable since all five were to return. On 13 August 1914 he joined the 9th Battalion of the Royal Warwick Regiment. By 1916 the Battalion was engaged in the Mesopotamia campaign and he was stationed in Baghdad.

In May 1917, Acting Company Sergeant-Major Rhodes was at sea aboard H.M. Troopship Caronia, which was travelling from Durban to Tungha Bay when a series of fires occurred in the bunkers. After several days the crew had to call for assistance from the troops aboard. A number volunteered to go into the bunkers and they gave valuable help in extinguishing the flames. One officer and 18 N.C.O.s and other ranks, as well as twelve crew members were all awarded the Sea Gallantry Medal for the incident.

After demobilisation George Rhodes returned to the L&NWR and on the 11 December 1919 he received his medal from the hands of the King at Buckingham Palace. He was again in the news in February 1941, when he rescued a friend, Harold Foster, from a canal at Tipton Staffordshire. He died in 1972 aged 83.

As far as can be ascertained George Rhodes is the only railwayman to have received the Sea Gallantry Medal since its inception in 1855.

Second World War North Western Europe Military Cross Group of Five awarded to Major Robert Wilson Gordon, 1st Battalion Royal Ulster Rifles, attached 3rd Parachute Brigade: Military Cross, George VI, reverse with engraved date 1946, 1939-45, France and Germany Stars, Defence Medal, War Medal, with oak leaf for Mention in Despatches, all unnamed as issued, mounted for wearing, good very fine (5) £2,000-3,000

Military Cross: London Gazette: 24 January 1946 (General Citation for North West Europe).

The following is taken from the official recommendation:

"Major Gordon landed by glider in Normandy of D Day and was in charge of the Royal Ulster Rifles 6 pounder Anti-tank guns, who were responsible for the anti-tank defence of Longueval. During the early days the village was repeatedly attacked by strong armoured forces from the 21st Panzer Division. These attacks were driven off and several enemy tanks knocked out. His inspiring leadership and courage during these battles contributed to a great extent the success achieved by his Battalion.

In early August 1944 Major Gordon assumed the appointment of Brigade Major, 3rd Parachute Brigade, and carried out his duties with outstanding success during the battles in the Bois de Bavent and the Brigade's advance on the Seine which concluded in September 1944.

He was with the Brigade throughout the battles in the Ardennes in the winter of 1944-45.

After playing a leading part in the Brigade planning for the Rhine offensive, he dropped with them over the Rhine on the 24th March 1945. His complete disregard for danger and imperturbable disposition contributed in no small way to the great success achieved by the Brigade immediately on their re-organisation on the conclusion of their drop.

After the breakout from the Rhine bridgehead until the brigade reached Wismar on the Baltic, Major Gordon's outstanding staff work, calm judgement and advice contributed largely to the success of the Brigade's operation.

Throughout the campaign in France and Germany from 6th June 1944 to 10th May 1945 Major Gordon's great devotion to duty and complete disregard of danger have proved an inspiring example to all ranks in the Brigade."

Mention in Despatches: London Gazette: 20 December 1940.

The lot is offered with the following documentation and provenance:

Forwarding slip for the Military Cross; Mention in Despatches certificate; 21st Army Group commendation dated 12 June 1945; place card signed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt with accompanying letter from the Presidential Private Secretary dated 4 February 1935; all framed; various photographs of the recipient including some wartime, and a group photograph of Trustees and Advisors of the Airborne Security Fund, including Major Gordon; a named silver medal commemorating the opening of the Stock Exchange Tower in 1972; and a letter from Brigadier S.J.L. Second World War Italian Front Immediate Award Military Medal Group of Five awarded to Gunner Lawrence Edward Coxon, Royal Artillery: Military Medal, George VI (14267463 Gnr. L.E. Coxon, R.A.), 1939-45 Star, Africa Star with 1st Army clasp, Italy Star, War Medal, all unnamed as issued, mounted for wearing, about extremely fine (5) £1,000-1,200

Military Medal: London Gazette: 24 May 1945:

"...In recognition of gallant and distinguished services in Italy".

The following is taken from the original recommendation:

"Immediate Award of the Military Medal.

14267463 Gunner Lawrence Edward COXON 2nd Field Regiment, RA.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty while employed as Observation Post signaller in the MT CERERE sector held by the 6/13 Royal Battalion, Frontier Force Rifles.

On 12th December 1944, Gnr Coxon was employed as a signaller responsible for maintaining the line communication with the observation post on Mt CERERE. During the day this feature was strongly attacked by the enemy and the observation post subject to heavy artillery and mortar fire, line communication was cut several times, and on such occasions Gnr Coxon left his shelter without hesitation and made repairs, thus maintaining vital communications. All repairs were carried out in the open under intense shell, mortar and small arms fire. One mortar bomb landed so near that Gnr Coxon was blown on his back, and another wounded a fellow signaller a yard or two away.

If it had not been for the fearless way in which Gnr Coxon exposed himself to maintain constant communications, it would not have been possible for fire to have been brought on to the enemy reserves moving up and the battle might well have been different.

Date of Award: 10th Feb. 1945."

The lot is offered with the following documentation: original recommendation signed by Brigadier G.R. Mochler; forwarding box, envelope and letter for the Military Medal; forwarding slip for the campaign stars and War Medal; West Sussex Home Guard enrolment card, June 1941; photograph of the recipient; duplicate ribands and riband bar; two Afrika Corps arm bands and "Gold" and Silver French Ministry of the Interior Medals, both in boxes of issue, apparently awarded to Lawrence Coxon's Father-in-Law, M. Janneau, a senior officer in the French Fire Service.

Second World War Distinguished Flying Medal Group of Six for Lampedusa, awarded to Sergeant James Samuel Sargent R.A.F.: Distinguished Flying Medal, George VI (550557 Sgt. J.S. Sargent. R.A.F.), 1939-45 Star, Air Crew Europe Star, with France and Germany clasp, Italy Star, Defence and War Medals, first with replacement clasp, about very fine (6) £4,000-6,000

Distinguished Flying Medal: London Gazette: 15 August 1941 (joint citation with Acting Flight Lieutenant Thomas Watkins, who received the Distinguished Service Medal):

"In June 1941, Flight Lieutenant Watkins and Sergeant Sargent were pilot and observer respectively of an aircraft which participated in an attack on an enemy convoy off Lampedusa. Attacking a 6,000 ton merchant ship in the face of heavy anti-aircraft fire, Flight Lieutenant Watkins was severely wounded in the legs during his run over the target. Nevertheless he pressed home his attack, mast high, scoring hits on the objective. Enemy fighters then engaged his aircraft but by his skilful manoeuvring, he enabled the rear gunner to resist the attackers. On the return journey, Flight Lieutenant Watkins fell into a stupor as a result of his wounds and Sergeant Sargent, who was unable to call the air gunner as the inter-communication gear was out of order, removed the wounded pilot from his seat, took over the controls and flew the aircraft back to base. During this period Flight Lieutenant Watkins had momentary periods of consciousness and, though in intense pain and very weak from loss of blood, by a supreme effort he regained his seat and made a landing without damaging the aircraft. Flight Lieutenant Watkins displayed the highest courage and devotion to duty while Sergeant Sargent displayed courage and resource in difficult circumstances."

The lot is offered with two original log books with entries from 19 May 1940 to 11 February 1960, with details of 34 operations between 9 July 1940 and 12 October 1941. Sargent also participated in D-Day, the towing of a glider to Arnhem on 17 September 1944, and a supply drop to Arnhem on the 19 September. The following is his own entry for the operation of 22 June 1941: "Convoy raid - pilot seriously wounded - took over control of A/C & returned Luqa. Awarded D.F.M."

Other items offered with the lot include a congratulatory letter signed by Air Marshal Sir Richard Pierce on his award of the D.F.M., a letter signed by his Flight Lieutenant dated 6 November 1936 and a copy of the comic The Victor, 11 April 1964, featuring the action and signed by the crew of the aircraft.

The following is taken from the official recommendation:

"Flight Sergeant Roberts has flown operations since the beginning of the war. A first class wireless operator, he inspires confidence in all with whom he flies. This airman has proved to be a most valuable member of air crew."

LLEWELLYN ROBERTS was born in 1920 at Welshpool, Montgomery. He enlisted in 1937 as a boy entrant and qualified as a wireless operator and air gunner. The Iraq Military Cross Pair awarded to Private Ryan John Copping, 1st Battalion Princess of Wales's Royal Regiment, Military Cross, Elizabeth II (engraved in capitals 25187813 Pte R J Copping PWRR 2006), Iraq Medal 2003, no clasp (engraved in capitals 25187813 Pte R J Copping PWRR), mounted for wearing, extremely fine, with Royal Mint case of issue for Military Cross and box of issue (and also rosette) for Iraq Medal (2) £18,000-22,000

Military Cross: London Gazette: 15 December 2006:

"...For gallant and distinguished services in Iraq during the period 1 April 2006 to 30 September 2006".

The official citation reads:

In the early hours of 18 July 2006 Private Copping was the driver of a Warrior, as the lead platoon of a Brigade level arrest and search operation into the heart of Basra at the height of the state of emergency.

His was the first vehicle to enter the city and shortly after, came under intense small arms and rocket propelled grenade fire from the Shia flats area of the city. The enemy were utilising every opportunity to blind and confuse the Warrior with light and multi-directional ambushes and the streets were strewn with obstacles. It was at this stage the crew were struggling to identify both the enemy and the route to take to push onto the objective. Copping opened the driver's hatch to gain greater situational awareness. From his exposed position he immediately began identifying the enemy positions that were pouring grenades and small arms fire upon the vehicles and steered his gunner onto them; a number of enemy positions were destroyed as a result. He remained calm and continued to keep the hatch open despite the enormous amount of fire he received as lead vehicle; instead he talked the gunner onto target after target.

Private Copping has demonstrated a near complete disregard for his own safety in order to do what he believed to be the act needed to ensure the vehicle, platoon and operation did not become bogged down. Despite very real and obvious danger he put second his own safety for the sake of his team and loyalty to what he knew was right.

The lot is offered with: a framed copy of the official citation; eleven original photographs, including some of Private Copping on duty in Iraq, and two of the Investiture Ceremony; various newspaper cuttings, mostly relating to the award of the Military Cross but including one relating to the 2008 F.A. Cup final, when Private Copping carried the trophy prior to the match; photocopies of congratulatory letters from Lieutenant-General J.N.R. Houghton, Lieutenant-General J.C. McColl, Major-General J. Cooper, Major General G.J. Binns, Major General P.R. Newton, Brigadier R.L. Scott-Bowden and the Mayor of Folkestone; and a copy of the regimental magazine of the 1st and 2nd Battalions Princess of Wales's Royal Regiment giving a detailed report of the incident.

Order of St. Stanislaus 2nd Class (with Swords): London Gazette: 1 October 1917:

"...Conferred by the Russian Government on officers of the Grand Fleet for distinguished services rendered in the Battle of Jutland."

CAPTAIN CLAUD FINLINSON ALLSUP was born at Charlton, Kent on 31 July 1885. He joined the training ship H.M.S Britannia as a cadet in January 1896. He studied at the Naval College, Greenwich between June and November 1901, having the previous month been appointed Sub-Lieutenant, and was promoted to Lieutenant the following year. On 1 September 1905, while serving aboard H.M.S. Pegasus, Allsup was appointed a member of the joint Anglo-French Commission for the maintenance of order in the New Hebrides.

At the outbreak of the Great War Lieutenant Allsup was placed in command of H.M.S. Legion, which was part of the Harwich Flotilla. He took part in the sinking of the German minelayer Königin Louise on 5 August 1914 and took part in the action off Heligoland Bight on 28 August. On the 17 October he was involved in the sinking of four German destroyers off the Dutch coast and later took part in the Dogger Bank action on 24 January 1915. He was promoted to Commander on 31 December 1914.

From 10 August 1915 to the 16 January 1918 he was in command of H.M. Ships Martin and Mystic and was aboard Mystic during the battle of Jutland. From January 1918 to February 1919 he was in command of H.M.S. Anzac. He was promoted to Captain on 31 December 1919 and died in July 1976.

North Russian O.B.E., Order of St Stanislaus and a Second World War "Q" Ships Immediate Distinguished Service Cross Group of Nine awarded to Arthur Esmé Lockington, Royal Naval Reserve: Order of the British Empire, Military Division, type 1 Officer's breast badge, Distinguished Service Cross, George VI, reverse with engraved date 1942, 1914-15 Star, British War and Victory medals (Lieut. A.E. Lockington. R.N.R.), 1939-45 and Africa Stars, War Medal, and Russia, Order of St. Stanislaus, Military Division, Second Class neck badge, maker's marks unclear but probably by Eduard, in gold and enamels, first eight mounted for wearing, very fine or better (9) £10,000-12,000

O.B.E.: London Gazette: 8 March 1920:

"For valuable services as Naval Officer in Charge on the Emtsa River."

The following is taken from the official recommendation:

"...N.T.O. in charge of the Emtsa River, where transport was particularly difficult owing to the extreme shallowness of the river (fell to 18 inches). Displayed great energy and zeal and managed this difficult tributary with marked ability."

Distinguished Service Cross: London Gazette: 24 November 1942:

"For courage and determination in the Mediterranean."

The following is taken from the official recommendation:

"H.M.S. Farouk was Lieutenant Commander Lockington's idea and he chose and fitted out the vessel. He had "Q" boat experience in the last war and though 53 years of age put the heart of a young man into the enterprise. Unfortunately his only action with an enemy U-boat took place at long range and his carefully laid plan to send a way a panic party and wait until the u-boat closed did not materialise. The U-boat did not close but destroyed his vessel from a distance of from 3,000 to 4,000 yards; but this did not prevent Lieutenant Commander Lockington and the majority of his crew from remaining on board until she was literally blown from under them."

I consider this to be a magnificent example of cool courage in the face of heavy odds, in the hope that even at the last some opportunity might turn up to attack the enemy."

There appears to be no Gazette entry for the Order of St Stanislaus; it is however listed by Ray Brough, White Russian Awards, p.108, and Lockington's service details contain the following marginal annotation:

"Unofficial permission to wear ribbon of the Order of St. Stanislas, 2nd class with Swords, 15.11.19."

H.M.S. Farouk was a Palestine two-masted schooner requisitioned by the Admiralty as a transport vessel in 1940 and brought 200 prisoners-of-war from Mersa Matruh to Alexandria in December 1940. Later the vessel was converted in Alexandria to a Q-ship, armed with two hidden guns.

At 10.09 hours on 13 June 1942, U-83, commanded by Hans-Werner Kraus, spotted Farouk off Ramkin Island and began shelling her from a distance of 9,000 metres. The ship evaded all shots until being hit after 15 minutes and soon caught fire amidships. The planned panic party had abandoned ship in a lifeboat, but the U-boat never came close enough for Farouk to engage her and soon the remaining crew had to leave in a second lifeboat before the schooner sank at 11.50 hours.

Offered with a quantity of photocopied research.

A Riband Bar as worn by Captain le Marquis Vivien de Châteaubrun, representing Military Cross, British War and Victory Medals, French Croix De Guerre, Order of St Anne, Order of St Stanislaus, Order of St Anne, Order of St Vladimir, Russian Tercentenary Medal 1913 and Battle of Poltava commemorative 1909, framed, with photograph of recipient (lot) £400-600

Citation for Military Cross dated 17 January 1919 (not gazetted, as it was issued as an honorary award to a foreign national):

"This officer joined the S.B.A.L. as one of the earliest volunteers on 7 July 1918, and took part in the original landing at Archangel on August 2nd, proceeding to the Railway front 6 days later."

While with Colonel Guard's force his behaviour both in command of troops and on special service carrying important despatches was always of the utmost gallantry: On one occasion, disguised as a peasant he carried an urgent cipher message to General Finlayson's Headquarters through 80 miles of hostile territory in face of great natural difficulties and obstacles."

His health broke down owing to these exertions, but he nevertheless continued to carry out patrol work of the utmost value until November 23rd, when he was ordered to return to Archangel for duty with General Savvitch."

The conduct of this Officer has throughout been of an order demanding the highest courage, determination and energy."

Offered with: typed letter from Colonel N. Abaimoff listing his Russian awards, dated 14 July 1923; Military Identity Card with photograph dated 9 May 1942 and copy of his Military Cross citation signed by General Needham, Commander-in-Chief, Northern Russia Expeditionary Force, framed.

MARQUIS VIVIEN DE CHATEAUBRUN was born in Gatchina, near St. Petersburg in 1896. He served as a page to the Empress Alexandra and became an Officer in the Imperial Russian Grenadier Guards where he was decorated for bravery on numerous occasions. Following the Revolution he became one of the earliest volunteers to join the Slavo-British Allied Legion. He went to England following the Civil War and served with the King's Royal Rifle Corps during the Second World War. Following the War he took over the Blue Cockatoo restaurant in Cheyne Walk, Chelsea. He died in 1976.

3. Examination of Lots

(a) M&E's knowledge of lots is partly dependent on information provided by the Seller and M&E is unable to exercise exhaustive due diligence on each lot. Each lot is available for examination before sale. Bidders are responsible for carrying out examinations and research before sale to satisfy themselves over the condition of lots and accuracy of descriptions.

(b) All oral and/or written information provided to Bidders relating to lots, including descriptions in the catalogue, condition reports or elsewhere are statements of M&E's opinion and not representations of fact. Estimates may not be relied on as a prediction of the selling price or value of the lot and may be revised from time to time at M&E's absolute discretion.

4. Exclusions and limitations of liability to Buyers

(a) M&E shall refund the Purchase Price to the Buyer in circumstances where it deems that the lot is a Counterfeit, subject to the terms of M&E's Authenticity Guarantee.

(b) Subject to Condition 4(a), neither M&E nor the Seller:-

- (i) is liable for any errors or omissions in any oral or written information provided to Bidders by M&E, whether negligent or otherwise;
- (ii) gives any guarantee or warranty to Bidders and any implied warranties and conditions are excluded (save in so far as such obligations cannot be excluded by English law), other than the express warranties given by the Seller to the Buyer (for which the Seller is solely responsible) under the Conditions of Business for Sellers;
- (iii) accepts responsibility to Bidders for acts or omissions (whether negligent or otherwise) by M&E in connection with the conduct of auctions or for any matter relating to the sale of any lot.

(c) Without prejudice to Condition 4(b), any claim against M&E and/ or the Seller by a Bidder is limited to the Purchase Price for the relevant lot. Neither M&E nor the Seller shall be liable for any indirect or consequential losses.

(d) Nothing in Condition 4 shall exclude or limit the liability of M&E or the Seller for death or personal injury caused by the negligent acts or omissions of M&E or the Seller.

5. Bidding at Auction

(a) M&E has absolute discretion to refuse admission to the auction. Before sale, Bidders must complete a Registration Form and supply such information and references as M&E requires. Bidders are personally liable for their bid and are jointly and severally liable with their principal, if bidding as agent (in which case M&E's prior and express consent must be obtained).

(b) M&E advises Bidders to attend the auction, but M&E will endeavour to execute absentee written bids provided that they are, in M&E's opinion, received in sufficient time and in legible form.

(c) When available, written and telephone bidding is offered as a free service at the Bidder's risk and subject to M&E's other commitments; M&E is therefore not liable for failure to execute such bids. Telephone bidding may be recorded.

6. Import, Export and Copyright Restrictions

M&E and the Seller make no representations or warranties as to whether any lot is subject to import, export or copyright restrictions. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any copyright clearance or any necessary import, export or other licence required by law, including licenses required under the Convention on the International Trade in Endangered Species (CITES).

7. Conduct of the Auction

(a) The auctioneer has discretion to refuse bids, withdraw or re-offer lots for sale (including after the fall of the hammer) if (s)he believes that there may be an error or dispute, and may also take such other action as (s)he reasonably deems necessary.

(b) The auctioneer will commence and advance the bidding in such increments as (s)he considers appropriate and is entitled to place bids on the Seller's behalf up to the Reserve Price for the lot, where applicable.

(c) Subject to Condition 7(a), the contract between the Buyer and the Seller is concluded on the striking of the auctioneer's hammer.

(d) Any post-auction sale of lots shall incorporate these Conditions of Business.

8. Payment and Collection

(a) Unless otherwise agreed in advance, payment of the Purchase Price is due in pounds sterling immediately after the auction (the "Payment Date").

(b) Title in a lot will not pass to the Buyer until M&E has received the Purchase Price in cleared funds. M&E will generally not release a lot to a Buyer before payment. Earlier release shall not affect passing of title or the Buyer's obligation to pay the Purchase Price, as above.

(c) The refusal of any licence or permit required by law, as outlined in Condition 6, shall not affect the Buyer's obligation to pay for the lot, as per Condition 8(a).

(d) The Buyer must arrange collection of lots within 10 working days of the auction. Purchased lots are at the Buyer's risk from the earlier of (i) collection or (ii) 10 working days after the auction. Until risk passes, M&E will compensate the Buyer for any loss or damage to the lot up to a maximum of the Purchase Price actually paid by the Buyer. M&E's assumption of risk is subject to the exclusions detailed in Condition 5(d) of the Conditions of Business for Sellers.

(e) All packing and handling of lots is at the Buyer's risk. M&E will not be liable for any acts or omissions of third party packers or shippers.

9. Remedies for non-payment

Without prejudice to any rights that the Seller may have, if the Buyer without prior agreement fails to make payment for the lot within 5 working days of the auction, M&E may in its sole discretion exercise 1 or more of the following remedies:-

(a) store the lot at its premises or elsewhere at the Buyer's sole risk and expense;

(b) cancel the sale of the lot;

(c) set off any amounts owed to the Buyer by M&E against any amounts owed to M&E by the Buyer for the lot;

(d) reject future bids from the Buyer;

(e) charge interest at 8% per annum above Lloyds TSB Bank plc Base Rate from the Payment Date to the date that the Purchase Price is received in cleared funds;

(f) re-sell the lot by auction or privately, with estimates and reserves at M&E's discretion, in which case the Buyer will be liable for any shortfall between the original Purchase Price and the amount achieved on re-sale, including all costs incurred in such re-sale;

(g) Exercise a lien over any Buyer's Property in M&E's possession, applying the sale proceeds to any amounts owed by the Buyer to M&E. M&E shall give the Buyer 14 days written notice before exercising such lien;

(h) commence legal proceedings to recover the Purchase Price for the lot, plus interest and legal costs;

(i) disclose the Buyer's details to the Seller to enable the Seller to commence legal proceedings.

10. Failure to collect purchases

(a) If the Buyer pays the Purchase Price but does not collect the lot within 20 working days of the auction, the lot will be stored at the Buyer's expense and risk at M&E's premises or in independent storage.

(b) If a lot is paid for but uncollected within 6 months of the auction, following 60 days written notice to the Buyer, M&E will re-sell the lot by auction or privately, with estimates and reserves at M&E's discretion. The sale proceeds, less all M&E's costs, will be forfeited unless collected by the Buyer within 2 years of the original auction.

11. Data Protection

(a) M&E will use information supplied by Bidders or otherwise obtained lawfully by M&E for the provision of auction related services, client administration, marketing and as otherwise required by law.

(b) By agreeing to these Conditions of Business, the Bidder agrees to the processing of their personal information and to the disclosure of such information to third parties world-wide for the purposes outlined in Condition 11(a) and to Sellers as per Condition 9(i).

12. Miscellaneous

(a) All images of lots, catalogue descriptions and all other materials produced by M&E are the copyright of M&E.

(b) These Conditions of Business are not assignable by any Buyer without M&E's prior written consent, but are binding on Bidders' successors, assigns and representatives.

(c) The materials listed in Condition 1(a) set out the entire agreement between the parties.

(d) If any part of these Conditions of Business be held unenforceable, the remaining parts shall remain in full force and effect.

(e) These Conditions of Business shall be interpreted in accordance with English Law, under the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts, in favour of M&E.

Morton & Eden Ltd.'s Authenticity Guarantee

If Morton & Eden Ltd. sells an item of Property which is later shown to be a "Counterfeit", subject to the terms below Morton & Eden Ltd. will rescind the sale and refund the Buyer the total amount paid by the Buyer to Morton & Eden Ltd. for that Property, up to a maximum of the Purchase Price.

The Guarantee lasts for two (2) years after the date of the relevant auction, is for the benefit of the Buyer only and is non-transferable.

"Counterfeit" means an item of Property that in Morton & Eden Ltd.'s reasonable opinion is an imitation created with the intent to deceive over the authorship, origin, date, age, period, culture or source, where the correct description of such matters is not included in the catalogue description for the Property.

Property shall not be considered Counterfeit solely because of any damage and/or restoration and/or modification work (including, but not limited to, traces of mounting, tooling or repatinating). Please note that this Guarantee does not apply if either:-

(i) the catalogue description was in accordance with the generally accepted opinions of scholars and experts at the date of the sale, or the catalogue description indicated that there was a conflict of such opinions; or

(ii) the only method of establishing at the date of the sale that the item was a Counterfeit would have been by means of processes not then generally available or accepted, unreasonably expensive or impractical; or likely to have caused damage to or loss in value to the Property (in Morton & Eden Ltd.'s reasonable opinion); or

(iii) there has been no material loss in value of the Property from its value had it accorded with its catalogue description.

To claim under this Guarantee, the Buyer must:-

(i) notify Morton & Eden Ltd. in writing within one (1) month of receiving any information that causes the Buyer to question the authenticity or attribution of the Property, specifying the lot number, date of the auction at which it was purchased and the reasons why it is believed to be Counterfeit; and

(ii) return the Property to Morton & Eden Ltd. in the same condition as at the date of sale and be able to transfer good title in the Property, free from any third party claims arising after the date of the sale.

Morton & Eden Ltd. has discretion to waive any of the above requirements. Morton & Eden Ltd. may require the Buyer to obtain at the Buyer's cost the reports of two independent and recognised experts in the relevant field and acceptable to Morton & Eden Ltd. Morton & Eden Ltd. shall not be bound by any reports produced by the Buyer, and reserves the right to seek additional expert advice at its own expense. In the event Morton & Eden Ltd. decides to rescind the sale under this Guarantee, it may refund to the Buyer the reasonable costs of up to two mutually approved independent expert reports, provided always that the costs of such reports have been approved in advance and in writing by Morton & Eden Ltd.
